

“For Such a Time as This”

Come take a stand with us in these days of uncertainty at the 19th Annual IBFNA Family Conference.

We look forward every year to the wonderful God honoring music and exhortation from the Word of God with like-minded brethren.

We will be hearing some speakers for the first time. We are thankful for the young preachers in our midst.

Don't forget we have a scholarship program for first time Pastors to our IBFNA Conference. We will absorb the cost of their registration and first night's lodging.

Wednesday from Noon until the evening session will be family time. Nearby places to visit include the Carnegie Museum, Carnegie Science Center, Kennywood Amusement Park and the Pittsburgh Zoo, as well as great shopping just a short drive from the conference area.

In these difficult economic times we know it will take commitment and concern to encourage and stand with our brethren. You won't want to miss any part of our conference.
